

'MARRIED LIFE IDEAL,' SAYS MRS. HALL

Simpson Brings Flush to Cheek Of Rector's Widow

"casualty" is a violent death? A. I do not think so.

Didn't Know Hall Was Killed

Q. What time did you get up that Friday morning? A. Between 6 and 7 o'clock.

Q. You did not know then your husband had been killed? A. No.

Q. What time did you see Mr. Mills? A. About 9 o'clock, as I passed the church.

Q. Where were you going then? A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you recall your 1922 statement in the prosecutor's office about your conversation with Mr. Mills that Friday? Didn't you say they had been together and had been murdered? A. No.

Q. Do you now deny that statement? A. I did not say that. I made no such statement.

Q. When you telephoned to Dr. Hall's sisters that day, where did you phone from? A. I telephoned from Coakland's drug store.

Q. You did not telephone from your own home, but from a booth outside? What did you tell them? A. That my husband had disappeared.

Q. When did you see Senator Florence? A. That afternoon.

Q. What did you tell him? A. To tell the police that my husband was gone.

Wears Disdainful Smile

Q. Why didn't you tell the police you were frantic because he was away?

The clergyman's widow was the same disdainful witness she had been on Saturday. Her faintly sneering smile greeted Prosecutor Simpson and her manner was condescending.

She had talked and laughed with her brothers and other relatives as she waited for court to open and walked to the stand almost proudly, it seemed, when her name was called.

Q. Which of the Carpendiers lived nearest to you? A. Mr. Edwin Carpendier.

Q. Did you go over to his house on Friday? A. No.

Q. Not knowing he had been murdered, you got Dr. Hall's sisters into your house and yet did not notify the police?

Clue Given by Mr. Mills

Q. Why did you put Mrs. Mills with your husband? A. Because James Mills said his wife was absent, too.

Q. Yet you knew nothing of his affair with this woman, A. No.

Q. Why did you put them together, then? A. Because I thought she was the last person he had spoken to.

Q. There was nothing wrong between your husband and Mrs. Mills? Then why did you say, in your 1922 statement, that you thought some harm had come to "THEM"? A. I do not remember saying that. I understood they were to meet that night.

Q. Where did he meet her? A. I don't know; he left home to see her.

Q. Your husband did not have an automobile that night; why did you think he had met with an accident? A. There are other cars; he might have been run over.

Q. That Friday you sat home, called the police and did not give your right name, and waited for your lawyer to come?

McCarter entered an objection. Justice Parker sustained him.

Q. Then all you did all day was to phone the police, without giving your name, phone Dr. Hall's sisters in Jersey City and wait for your lawyer to come.

McCarter again objected. Simpson then asked Mrs. Hall if she had seen Mills more than once that day.

Saw Mills Twice

A. Yes; I saw him, in the morning and again at 4 o'clock.

Q. Your husband was a very honorable man. You did not suspect his loyalty or devotion; yet you at once linked him with a missing choir singer? A. No, but he had gone to see her.

Q. Didn't you tell Barbara Tough, as you went to bed Friday night, that you knew he wouldn't

New Method Removes Wrinkles in 15 Minutes

A veritable wonder - worker for wrinkled and flabby faces is a simple, harmless application made by mixing a spoonful of powdered tarragon with a spoonful of lemon juice. Not only does it quickly smooth out the wrinkles and age lines—before one's very eyes—but it has a stimulating influence upon the weakened and relaxed underlying tissues. The mixture is spread over the face with the fingertips, and in less than fifteen minutes the mirror shows that a most marvelous transformation has taken place. When the substance is washed off the average face actually looks ten or fifteen years younger.

The results are far better than those obtainable from the most expert massaging—and the cost is less than three cents a treatment! Powdered tarragon quickly erases wrinkles. Improves facial contour. At all druggists and beauty counters.

come home? Didn't you tell her that you knew he was not out with Mrs. Mills, because she was one out of your own class? A. I don't remember that.

Q. Was anybody more active than Mrs. Mills in church work? A. Yes, Mrs. Clarke.

Q. Did she have a key to the church? A. Yes.

Q. You had no lawyer when you made your 1922 statement? A. No, I had not engaged Mr. Pfeiffer then.
